

2009 Annual Report to the Community

Achiever of the Year

Our co-winners of the 2009 Achiever of the Year award are Tiffany McIntire and Tom Cassidy. They are partners in the Goodwill-sponsored microenterprise business called Jersey Zone, a café in the Michigan Works! Career Alliance in Flint. Tiffany and Tom overcame many barriers to open and run this food service business which is well on its way to success.

Achiever of the Year Runner Up

Anthony R. McLeod is Goodwill's 2009 Achiever of the Year Runner Up. Shaken by a negative prior work experience, Tony worked with a Goodwill job developer to rebuild his confidence and become a valuable member of the Caro store team. Tony would eventually like to enroll in college in preparation for a career in law enforcement.

Graduate of the Year

Goodwill's 2009 Graduate of the Year is Tracy Gordon. Though facing many employment barriers, Tracy approached his job search with determination and a desire to improve his skills and education. Following a successful program, and aided by encouragement from his co-workers, supervisor and family, Tracy was employed in Goodwill's textile department and is well on his way to independence.

Graduate of the Year Runner Up

Robert J. Brown, our 2009 Graduate of the Year Runner Up, demonstrated from the start of the program his deep desire to perform well and succeed. Developing a support system both within Goodwill and from outside sources, Robert has held increasingly responsible positions at Goodwill and is currently a lead worker in the Career Services division.

Employer of the Year

We are honored to recognize Owosso Carpet Center as our 2009 Employer of the Year. A family-owned flooring store for 29 years, OCC has opened their doors to Goodwill for community-based evaluation and training and was responsible for the placement of two Goodwill consumers. They have also helped other consumers with job leads in their community.

In Memoriam

In 2009, Phil Braun (upper left), and Ed Berryman (bottom left), both members of Goodwill's Board of Governors since its inception in 1984, passed away. In July, 2009 we lost John Gibbs (upper right) who retired in 2007 after serving as Goodwill's CFO for more than 25 years, following his courageous battle with cancer. And in January of this year, long time community leader and businessman Ernie Hamady (bottom right) passed away. Ernie served on Goodwill's Board of Directors for more than ten years. We will miss the experience, counsel and certainly the friendship of these fine men very much.
